

WHAT WOULD A BUDDHIST DO?

- LIVING LIFE JODO SHINSHU STYLE -

2017 NEMBUTSU GATHERING

Sponsored by Honolulu Hongwanji Council & The Office of Buddhist Education

SUNDAY
OCT. 15

11:00A
- 2:00P

HONPA HONGWANJI HAWAII BETSUIN
MAIN SOCIAL HALL & LOUNGE

REGISTRATION FEE | $10 PER ADULT

This Nembutsu Gathering is an opportunity for people of all ages to listen to the Dharma, engage in dialogue & experience the dynamic teaching of responding to life “just as it is” with joy & gratitude. Consider insights to questions such as:

My life is chaotic and stressful with a career, marriage and raising children -

What does responding to my life in a Buddhist way look like?

Furnishing care to aging parents is a struggle, what are Buddhist insights so that I may do the best I can?

What is so special about being an American Buddhist?

How do I respond in gratitude for this life?

Call Hawaii Betsuin for more information: 536-7044. Enter parking lot from Lusitania Street. Child-care will be provided for children 3 years and older. Lunch is included for adults and children.

PRESENTERS

REV. SHINDO NISHIYAMA
Chief Minister, Hilo Betsuin
Resident Minister, Jikoen Hongwanji

REV. SATOSHI KA`IMIPONO TOMIOKA
Resident Minister, Puna Hongwanji

PIEPER TOYAMA
Educator
Former Head of School, PBA
President, HHMH

REGISTRATION FORMS AVAILABLE @ TEMPLE OFFICE | DEADLINE: OCT 5, 2017